'DEAR ONES FAR AWAY.'

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

Oh times when o'er these lofty walls the twilight's veil is thrown;

Within my solitary room I sit and muse alone:

And, as the curtains of the West close round the dying day,

The past, the lovely past returns with dear ones far away!

Oh, then how sadly in my heart its olden memories throng!

The many unalloyed delights to childhood that belong,

Before the blossom and the rose of life had felt decay,

When I was folded in the arms of dear ones far away.

I hear my father's greeting mild, my mother's gentle call,

My brothers and my sisters twain they're present with me, all!

And some are buried deep beneath the ocean's dashing spray,

Yet unto me their spirits come with dear ones far away.

I see the old familiar scenes; the cheerful hours we knew,

Within the mirror of the mind successive rise to view;

And though like unsubstantial dreams, they vanish in the day,

Such passing pictures hold the shapes of dear ones far away.

While thus I muse on distant friends, and look through by-gone years,

My eyes, as in my childhood hours, are filled with pleasant tears;

For earth was bright before me then, and life was in its May,

When they in very truth were mine—those dear ones far away.

Thanks be to heaven for that high power, which time cannot destroy—

A Power that fills the saddened soul with images of joy,

Since unto clear and brilliant light, imagination's ray,

Can throw the well remembered forms of dear ones far away!

THE STOLEN CHILD.

BY MRS. CAROLINE ORNE.

Continued.

"But did you not tell me that you caused the river to be thoroughly searched?"

"I did, but it was not the task of a day, or even of an hour, but you know that all waters swarm, more or less, with voracious—"

Captain Stanley arrested Witherton's words by a nervous and impatient gesture of his hand.

"I beg," said he, "that you will not present such a horrid image to my mind. Suffer me at least, to please myself with the idea, that if she be dead, some kind though strange hand, restored dust to dust."

Witherton bowed his head in token that he received the reproof, and in a few moments afterwards, said in a still meeker, softer voice than any in which he had yet spoken, "You were examining these papers when I came in—do you find them correct?"

"Yes I was examining my will, which wants nothing more but the signatures—"

You will perceive, when you come to read it, that with the exception of one thousand dollars, bequeathed to Latimer St. Clair, my orphan nephew, your son Eben, will inherit the whole of my property at my decease. But I can assure you Artemas, that it was not without many disagreeable feelings, that I cut off poor Latimer, my deceased sister's only child, with so paltry a sum."

"Have not I told you a thousand times, that he was a graceless, hair-brained youth who was likely, one day to disgrace us all by ending his days on the gibet? I consider the thousand dollars you have willed him as worse than thrown away."

"It may be as you say, but during my long absence, his conduct may have changed from what it was when he was a boy."

"The haughty letter he sent you, declining all assistance from you was enough, I should think, to give you an insight into his character."

"I shall always think that he was excited at the time he wrote it, by listening to some false representation of my character. I will try to think no more about him. You would like to read the will, I suppose."

"It is of no consequence—I will just glance my eye over it, however, if you please."

He was reaching out his hand to take it, when a boy opened the door of the library, saying that there was a man at the door, who wished to see Mr. Artemas Witherton.

"He had better walk up into the library," said Captain Stanley.

As no objection were offered by Witherton, the boy withdrew, and in a few moments returned, conducting a man coarsely clad; his countenance betraying unequivocal marks of frequent inebriety. As he entered, he made an awkward bow, and then said to Witherton, "my business is of a private nature—cannot we have some place by ourselves?"

Captain Stanley immediately rose, and gathering up the papers upon the table and placing them in a drawer, which he locked, told Witherton that he was welcome to remain where he was, as long as he chose. As soon as he was gone, the stranger placing himself at a point where the light fell strongly upon his features, said, "Artemas Witherton, do you know me?"

The ashy paleness that crept over his features, belied the negative that faltered on his tongue.

"What? not remember 'cunning Joe.'"

the travelling tinker?"

"What should I know of you? I don't associate with tinkers."

"But you may employ them sometimes. Just whet up your memory a little, and may be you will recollect a trifling job you got me to do about twelve years ago the coming spring. It was not in my line, but a genius like me, can turn his hand to any thing."

"I do not feel obliged to remember any thing that happens so long ago as that. You were paid what you asked, and I have nothing more to do about it."

"I am not sure of that. What if I should tell you that the little curly headed imp that you employed me to take care of, is alive and hearty, and is one of the prettiest girls you ever set your eyes on."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1846.

A NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.—We have noticed, with much pleasure, during the last few weeks, that many of our exchanges have been advocating the proposition for a general National Thanksgiving, to be held on some day during the Autumn, which the President of the United States shall designate, and recommend by Proclamation. This is almost excellent plan, and seems to meet with universal approbation; at least, so far as the Press is concerned; and that is following a very broad range. It is highly proper that a free people, like the Americans, certainly, during one day in each year, should entirely abstain from all secular and worldly pursuits, and devote themselves to things of a more important nature. Let us leave all money-making affairs, and business of every kind, with our minds free from restraint and care; and assemble in the temples which are dedicated to the service of the living God, and there offer up our sincere and fervent thanks for his continued kindness, in protecting us from impending danger, and bestowing upon us, unworthily as we are, his numerous blessings.

In our hurried journey through life, we seldom, if ever, pause to reflect on these things; we confide in our own strength and power, and vainly fancy ourselves competent to cope with any and all embarrassments, and philosophically to meet every emergency. While in the full enjoyment of health and prosperity, we are too proud to acknowledge that it is through the mercy of an overruling power that we are thus enabled to enjoy life,—but foolishly imagine that it is in consequence of our own extraordinary skill and good management. When misfortunes befall us, or our affairs become deranged, we talk about fate and chance, and murmur because every thing does not go on smoothly as we could wish,—without once asking ourselves the cause of this change, or reasoning upon the subject, as sensible and responsible men should. We may advocate infidel doctrines, during the hour of health and prosperity, and scoff at the idea of religion; but there is a time coming, when the recollection of these things will haunt us almost beyond endurance; a guilty conscience, and the pangs of ceaseless remorse will torment us vastly more than our fool-hardy bravery now benefits us. And this time of deep and fearful reflection will surely come in this life, while yet the heart can feel, and the soul be perplexed; it will not be postponed, as some think, until after the fitful dream of existence on earth is passed,—but its sad reality will sooner or later alarm us.

We do not profess to be better or purer than other men, but we claim to have the moral courage to speak boldly and plainly in regard to such matters; we do not sneak behind the cloak of infidelity, and avoid the subject, by pretending to disbelieve, because there is a mystery about the thing, which no one can explain. We are convinced of the truth of these things, by a simple glance at the grandeur of nature, and the stupendous mechanism of creation; hence, we are compelled to believe that there is a Power, superior to ourselves, that has created and now sustains the whole,—and as the mind must be immortal, we are driven to the inevitable conclusion that since such is the case, there is also a right and wrong course to be pursued; and as the Power which created us must be right, there is a time coming when that Divinity will require us to account for our conduct.

—We are certainly enjoying the most delightful Indian Summer weather, that could possibly be desired; yesterday was warm and balmy, without a single breeze to disturb the decaying foliage of the trees. At such a time as this, it is hard to be confined to the matter-of-fact business affairs of this prosaic world; we yearn for wings to be wafted to a more congenial clime, where the spirit may luxuriate in its own native element, undisturbed by the cares and perplexities of life's hurrying crowd.

—Our exchanges are all exceedingly dull, not one of them containing the slightest particle of news, during the last week; consequently we have nothing of an interesting nature to present our readers.—Things will not remain so long, however, for it cannot be many days before we shall have news of General Taylor's advance upon Monterey.

ANTI-RENT NOMINATIONS.—The Convention of the anti-rent party, of the State of New York, have nominated John Young, the Whig candidate, for Governor, and Addison Gardner, the Democratic candidate, for Lt. Governor. Their ticket for Canal Commissioners was made up in the same way—by taking one from each of the two political tickets.

EDITORS LOOKING UP.—J. M. SCOFIELD, Esq., Editor of the New London Star, and J. GUY DOLEBEARE, Esq., Editor of the New London Morning News, have both been appointed hog-drivers of that City, at the late election, by the unanimous and freely expressed suffrages of the freeman aforesaid! Well, what next?

NONSENSE.—The City Court of New London has recently imposed a fine of one dollar, and the cost of Court, amounting to twenty three dollars and thirteen cents, upon Gen. A. W. Riley, the Temperance lecturer, for obstructing the streets, by delivering a lecture in the same. This is an everlasting disgrace to New London, and her citizens should be heartily ashamed of it. It will be recollected by our readers that Gen. Riley recently lectured in the Park, in this town; we presume he told too many sober truths for some of the topers of that City, or he would not have been molested.

FROM RIO JANEIRO.—A letter dated at Rio Janeiro, Aug. 31, received by the ship Carrier, yesterday, says: "We have no late advices from the river Platte, but rumors are afloat that the mission of Mr. Hood to Gen. Rosas had failed, and that he is now trying to negotiate with Gen. Oribe, the besieger of Montevideo."

—The Providence Gazette, and other papers are discussing the question, "which arm should be given to a lady?" The Gazette man is stumped, and leaves it to the ladies. Our rule is, to give them both arms.—Boston Star.

Corporal, you are right, and speak like a sensible and experienced man; the ladies will all love and adore you, although they may pretend to be a little modest about the matter, at first.

ANOTHER SLAVER.—Brig Casket, Lieut. Barton, U. S. Navy, prize master, fifty-nine days from Kachcha, West coast of Africa, for Boston, passed Holmes' Hole Oct 6

A WORRY COMMUNICANT.—A Major Dunn has been arrested in Pittsburgh, for violently assaulting a clergyman, who refused to admit him to the communion table. The Major was a member of the church.

MR. EDWIN FORREST.—A number of distinguished citizens in New York, have tendered a public dinner to this eminent tragedian, which is to come off in that city, on Friday, the 16th inst.

—A cataract has been discovered on the river St. Louis, where it falls into the western extremity of Lake Superior, which has never been described by any geographer. It is said to be second only to Niagara. The volume of water is very great, and the perpendicular height of the fall one hundred and fifty feet.

WISCONSIN.—The election of 85 democrats and 8 whigs to the Territorial Convention to form a Constitution, shows clearly the political character of this infant State.

YELLOW FEVER.—Fourteen cases of yellow fever have appeared at the Navy Yard in Pensacola. There are 200 cases in the Hospital, chiefly of seamen, contracted while in the Gulf.

CURIOUS VERDICT.—A coroner's jury in New Orleans, returned a verdict on the body of a man "died of pernicious intermittent fever."

—Ex-President Tyler and family have arrived in New York, and are at Mrs. Gardiner's, in Lafayette Place.

DIED.
In this town, on Wednesday evening, Robert Goodman, son of Edward L. and Martha R. Jones aged 2 years and 1 month.

MEMORANDA.
Cleared at North, Oct. 21, brig Prince de Joinville, Dennis, for N. York.
Bark Philena, of New York, at New Haven fm Hull, was dismasted 19th ult., and was towed from Plum Gut by Rev Cutter Jackson.

—Owing to previous arrangements Manchester & brother will be under the necessity of closing their Daguerreotype Rooms, corner of Thames and Mary-streets, Newport, within a short time, (probably eight or ten days,) therefore would say to the good people of this place who wish to present their friends with an invaluable memento, that they can never do better than to give us a call soon. Young lady, bring in that venerable father and watchful mother, and secure a good likeness to-day, for tomorrow it may be too late. Mothers, bring in those little ones with curling hair and sparkling eyes; they will make pretty pictures, and then should they be taken from you, you can exclaim, in the language of the poet:

"Gone to their rest, yet we would not recall them
Back to this region of sorrow and pain;
Gone to their rest where no ill can befall them—
Yet we have their likeness both perfect and plain."

Dr. Banning's Patent Body Lace, For Weakness of the Body.

—The following letter is submitted to a discerning public, and the proprietor is enabled to refer to many individuals—whose testimony will satisfy the most incredulous. Be particular and get Banning's Lace, and be put off with nothing else.

New and More Testimony.

WARREN, August 22, 1846.
Dr. Boardman—Dear Sir:—Now being about leaving for home, I am able to give thus far a favorable account of the Lace which I have worn only four days. For more than four years I have suffered greatly from dyspepsia, that scourge of our race. My food has always been so troublesome that my stomach would reject it almost every day—my bowels always constipated—my head always feeling heavy and unpleasant, and my spirits greatly depressed. I was unfitted for any regular business, and till I saw you, I had given up the hope of ever being better. I had consulted many physicians, and in Boston, those the most celebrated, and spent nearly all the money I could earn, upon them and medicines. Since I have worn the Lace, all these symptoms have in a great degree vanished, and now, it seems to me, I shall be well again. I find my body regaining its erect position—the splitting up my foot is pretty much over; my spirits and energy are returning, and I feel like a new man.

COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, &c.

NO better article for the effectual cure of the above, and all complaints of the Breast and Lungs was ever made, than that long known and justly celebrated remedy, called WHITWELL'S MEDICATED CANDY. It promotes expectoration; removes hoarseness, and positively without fail cures the wildest cough, if curable, when used in connection with the COUGH PILLS, which all who purchase Candies or more of the Candy, are gratuitously entitled to. This Candy has been in successful use for 14 years, and in no case whatever, where a cure could be possibly effected, has it failed. It will not cure Consumption, but it will cure Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and all the common pulmonary affections. It not only contains a strong decoction of Horehound, Balm of Bolsof, and various other herbs, but the best COUGH BALSAAM that can be possibly used, such as is daily prescribed by our first Physicians, in pulmonary complaints. All those who have tried other Cough Candies without success, are invited to use this, and the most incredulous will be satisfied that it is all it pretends to be. Sole agent in Newport, Oct 8. R. J. TAYLOR, 148 Thames St.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid; Or Vegetable Hair Composition.

THE subscriber has been induced to bring this article before the public, at the request of his numerous customers, among whom are physicians and citizens of the first respectability, who have adopted its use in their families, and wish others to participate in its advantages.

The Hyperion is composed of vegetable ingredients, the secret of compounding and blending which is known solely to the subscriber. It is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture never before attained, yet free of animal grease or essential oils. It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action in the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing BALDNESS AND GREY HAIR.

It entirely frees the skin from Scurf, Dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and changes the hardest hair into the most soft, glossy, and healthy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it, both on the skin and hair, in a most healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Hyperion a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the fluid, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls.—When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

DR. BANNING'S PATENT LACE!

An immediate Relief to Tubercular Consumption, the Bronchitis of Public Speakers, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Spinal Weakness, Piles, Protrusion, and Diseases of Women, without Medicines.

THIS instrument has been examined by Drs. Mott, Rodgers, Francis, and Griscom of New York, the faculty of Pittsburgh, Har'rd, New Haven and Middletown, and has obtained for itself their favorable testimony. The following will show what kind of testimony might be produced in many cases:

Middletown, June, 25th, 1843.

Dr. Boardman, Sir—In answer to your inquiry respecting my case, I will merely say, that I have been sick since I strained my breast and lungs in May, 1836, from that time continued to grow worse, when in the fall of '39, I abandoned business, and have not done any thing since. I suppose from all I could learn about my case—frequently raising blood, coughing very hard and expectorating profusely, deriving no benefit from my physicians, and all medicines recommended to me, that my case was hopeless. Last winter my brother told me he had heard a good account of Dr. Banning's Lace in such cases, and was anxious that I should try it; accordingly I procured one from you, and since I began to wear it, my breathing, which was very short and laborious, has become easy and natural; the pain and fluttering or palpitation of the heart has subsided; cough and expectoration greatly lessened, my limbs which were exceedingly painful have become useful, so that I can walk comfortably. I am able to shave myself with comfort, which for many years I have not been able to do. The piles, which have troubled me for nine years, are nearly eradicated. I work some in the garden, and am able to ride 4 miles at once with pleasure and benefit. Yours, &c. WM. RANNEY

Dr. G. M. Boardman, Middletown, June 25, 1843.

Dr. Boardman, Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiries respecting the effect of Dr. Banning's Lace in the case of my wife, I will state that for twenty years past, she has been afflicted with a complication of complaints to which females are subject. She has tried all the physicians and all the medicines recommended for such complaints, without regard to expense, and found only temporary relief. Her most distressing complaints, palpitation of the heart, oppression and a sense of great weight at the pit of the stomach, protrusion of the womb, &c., were believed after wearing the lace two hours, and she has continued to improve daily. With this view of the case I cannot use language strong enough to convey my approval of the instrument. aug. 29th. STEPHEN BROOKS, JR.

Providence, Feb. 26, 1846.

Doctor Boardman,—Dear Sir—I now take my pen to inform you that my wife's health has improved very fast for the last two weeks from wearing one of your Laces. She has been out of health about two years and has worn a different Supporter from yours, which had only two pads. She received some benefit from that—but it would not produce a cure. But now I can say with pleasure that she is as smart as any of the young girls in the neighborhood. She can now run up and down stairs as fast as I can, and I feel so well pleased with it that I hardly know how or what to write. But one thing I do now, that she has been under the care of seven Doctors in one year—and wearing your Lace two weeks has or will do the cure in a very short time. I want to write more, but I have no time. I am truly, your friend and well wisher. J. * *

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

All persons require Facts.

DR. LORRAINE'S CURATIVE SYSTEM OF MEDICINE is rapidly producing achievements never before known in the cure of diseases. The immensity of its wonderful results, alone demonstrate that its principles must be founded on truth. The relative proportion of Cures by this Medicine is out of all proportion greater, than by any other Medicine known.

THE THEORY is, that one blood beats in the bosom, and flows through the body of every man, and must be pure, it is the Vital Principle that sustains life.

Physicians, and people of every class are willing to come forward and announce, in the most public manner that they have been cured of long standing complaints—after another medicines had failed. In fact there can be no doubt but that Lorraine's vegetable Pill is the best medicine ever offered to the public.

See a few public statements of men of truth and virtue.

Lynn, Dec. 17th, 1813;

Sir: I have sold all the pills I last had of you, please send another lot immediately. The sale of Lorraine's vegetable Pills is rapidly on the increase, they are becoming very popular. I sell more and more every day. As a curative medicines and purifier of the blood. I think they stand unrivalled. One fact I have noticed, that no one that has used them finds any fault with them; they have wrought some very great cures. One lady, who has been confined to the house and bed, a great part of the time, for twenty years, is now cured and able to work most of her time, after having taken 3 boxes only of Lorraine's Pills! I might name many other cases where the cures have been as great, but have not time. Yours respectfully,

J. E. P. MARSH.

Portland, Me., Nov. 7th, 1813.

Sir: Please send us one gross of Lorraine's Pills, we have sold all we had last. They have given very good satisfaction, better than any other pills which we have in our market. I think in a short time they will take the place of others. We have had no fault found with them: whatever, but, on the contrary, they have been praised loudly. I think we could have quite a number of highly respectable certificates from our citizens.

Yours respectfully, E. MASON.

Chelsea, Jan. 3d, 1814.

Sir: I transmit to you an account of my case for publication, believing it to be my duty. I have been confined with the Rheumatism nearly the whole winter, have had some of the best physicians of Boston and could get nothing that would relieve me more than temporarily. I heard of the wonderful virtue of Lorraine's Pills, I had no faith, whatever, but I took them, and it is a solemn fact that when I had taken but eight pills, my Rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have remained well ever since.

N. B. I never took more than one pill at a time and that on going to bed.

Yours respectfully, W. M. HALSTAL.

OPINION OF A SKILFUL PHYSICIAN. Sir, the operation of Lorraine's Pills is past any philosophy to find out, how so small a Pill can produce such wonderful effects. I find that one of them will operate more than 3 or 4 of any other Pill, yet in their operation, mild, gentle and comforting. On this account, they are more than 100 per cent, cheaper, as physis, than any other Medicine I know of.

These Pills are now acknowledged by thousands who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Banner from all others. This extraordinary medicine has actually done Wonders within one year past. They cause no pain or uneasiness of any kind in their operation, and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the reader is respectfully called to the important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine, still greater and more remarkable cures daily happen.

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some of her relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by mosquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the mosquito, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blotch, pimple or blotch left upon her skin, and her complexion is now as fair as the lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this inestimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cents per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent. Aug 7

FAHNSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

ONE of the most safe and efficacious Worm medicines in use, a fresh supply of which is just received and for sale, at wholesale and retail, by the Agent for Newport. R. R. HAZARD, Sign of the Golden Mortar, near the Court House. May 8

IT is now about ten years since this medicine has been introduced to the public, and it stands unrivalled in its effects, bearing the test of the severe scrutiny of all classes, both friendly and unfriendly. It is but for one purpose;—for the use of Mothers who have to pass through a sea of affliction in giving birth to mankind, not to be described. It is to you we make an appeal. It is for your especial and general good that you should make use of one bottle of the MOTHER'S RELIEF before confinement. Then you can approach the parturient chamber without feeling as if you were going to the chamber of death. You may rest assured it will still all ferberile and nervous affection. It soothes and shields from irritation and by its peculiar properties it destroys the cause of hemorrhage or inflammation that so often attend and follow the hour of parturition. It causes sweet and natural rest, and at last facilitates the birth, so that Mothers have not to pass through such excruciating pain and distress. The Mother's Relief may be depended upon in all cases of threatening abortion where it is possible to be prevented in cases of Spasms, &c., causing frequent alarm, from two to three doses will give immediate relief.

As the subject is one that cannot with propriety be fully discussed in this public manner, we invite all who feel interested to call on our agents (most of the respectable Druggists in the United States,) or on the manufacturer, and they will be furnished with a pamphlet in which they will find all the facts to form a correct opinion of its merits, and also the opinions of many physicians of eminence, and of persons who have become acquainted with its beneficial effects.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—Ask for BARTHOLOMEW'S Mother's Relief. None is genuine unless our signatures are found within the wreath of the direction that is pasted on the bottle, signed with our own hand, and over the neck of the bottle is a fac simile of our own hand writing also. By attending to the above directions, no one need be imposed upon. All orders will be promptly attended to. DR. G. A. BARTHOLOMEW, Office on the corner of Fitzhugh street, opposite the Co. Clerk's office, Rochester, N. Y.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want.
